(4) Statement of Understanding

1. In accordance with reference (a), application for enrollment in the Marine Corps Naval Science Courses, commencing with the Fall Quarter, Academic Year 1998, is hereby submitted. I desire to be considered as a candidate for a commission in the U.S. Marine Corps.

2. Service as a marine officer provides me the opportunity to develop the personal and professional characteristics of an exceptional leader. Readiness is the primary mission. Maintaining the appropriate state of readiness lies first with me who by vigorous study and leadership will ensure the Marine Corps' continued excellence in every assignment. The constraint of limited resources, a continual characteristic of the Marine working environment, will require me to practice active efficiency and provide disciplined guidance so the personnel of my command can exceed any material limitation. Victory goes to those who employ a vigorous pursuit in practice and execution, the only path to success I know. Of the military figures I know, only a Marine can inspire true respect. Always the student, I am eager to receive guidance from those exceptional Marine Corps officers who came before and continue to serve. Disciplined, loyal and professional a marine officer exceeds the highest standards and I must do the same. No other endeavor will bring the satisfaction of my dedicated service in the world's finest fighting force, the United States Marine Corps.

MARINE OFFICER INSTRUCTOR COMMENTS: Extremely high self-discipline. Midn pushes himself to the limits. A 25-year old Fleet-input Navy Option Scholarship Midshipman, he has been attracted by the discipline, gravity, and order of the Corps. Intelligent, forceful, and well-spoken, he is a commanding presence and a PT animal. As disciplined in academics as he is in physical training, he maintained a 3.30 cumulative GPA in a Chemistry curriculum. He recently switched to History, to round out his education and personal growth. He learns quickly and acts decisively upon constructive criticism. Shows potential to take command and train subordinates. Ranked 1 of 2 Auburn candidates.
